

Where Do We Live?

State Name: Georgia

City Name: Woodstock

What is the environment like (mountains, beaches, deserts, etc.)?

Here is a picture:

Description:

Woodstock is located north of Atlanta and just south of the Appalachian Mountains. Our town has lots of trees, hills, and lakes.

Facts about our state:

Pictures	Descriptions
Our State Flag: 	Description: Our flag was adopted in 2003. It has 3 stripes and 13 stars which represent its position as one of the original thirteen colonies.
Our State Tree: 	Description: The Live Oak is Georgia's state tree. It is native to Georgia and flourished when the first settlers made their homes here.
Our State Flower: 	Description: Our state flower is the Cherokee Rose. It is called the Cherokee Rose because the Cherokee Indians planted many of them.

Our State Animal:

Description:

The gopher tortoise is the oldest living species in Georgia and is our State Reptile.

Our State Insect:

Description:

The honeybee is our state insect and is responsible for honey production and pollinating many of Georgia's crops.

Our State Bird:

Description:

Our state bird is the Brown Thrasher. The bird is about a foot long and flies to Georgia to spend its winters.

Here is a picture of our state:

